

NEW HAMPSHIRE JUDICIAL COUNCIL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE JUDICIAL COUNCIL seeks applications from attorneys interested in receiving an appointment to serve as its executive director. The Judicial Council is an executive-branch agency given the statutory responsibility for ensuring the quality and effectiveness of the indigent-defense delivery system. The Council also ensures that high-quality legal and guardian-ad-litem services are provided in the child protection system. Since 1946, the Judicial Council has served as a catalyst for the discussion of legal and judicial issues through seminars, forums and special studies, and has served as an institutional forum for the on-going and disinterested consideration of issues affecting the administration of justice, (see RSA 494:3).

The position description can be found on the homepage of the Judicial Council's website, www.nh.gov/judicialcouncil/, or by contacting the Council directly. For detailed information regarding salary and benefits, please contact the Council's Administrative Assistant, Pat Heinrich, using the contact information provided below. A cover letter and resume should be delivered by email to Ms. Heinrich to the attention of:

Nina C. Gardner, Chair
New Hampshire Judicial Council
25 Capitol Street, Room 424, Concord, N.H. 03301

Ms. Heinrich can be reached at 603-271-1413 or by emailing Pat.Heinrich@nh.gov. The deadline for submission is February 23, 2016.
